Dear Councillors,

Following the recent crash on the A76 between Sanquhar and Thornhill in Dumfries and Galloway, in which an HGV overturned and more than 200 of the sheep on board were subsequently euthanised, I am writing to ask if you'd please permit PETA to place a memorial near the accident site to commemorate the lives lost in this incident.

Our memorial would let people know that the best way to prevent crashes such as this one is to go vegan, because sheep shouldn't have to make a terrifying trip to the livestock market or abattoir at all. It'd also remind vehicle drivers of their responsibility to the thousands of animals they transport every year as well as to the motorists whose lives are endangered when a lorry overturns.

Thank you for your consideration.

Yours sincerely,

Elisa Allen
Director
PETA
