

Lesson Plan 5: Choices

Look at the scenarios below. Think about all the things you could do in each situation. Then write down what you would do and why.

1. Friends at school have been boasting that they spent the weekend tying firecrackers to cats' tails.

I could

I would

because

2. On your way to school every day, you see a dog chained up outside in all types of weather. The chain looks heavy, and you can't see any food or water. He is dirty and looks unhappy.

I could

I would

because

3. You see a fox get badly hurt by a car.

I could

I would

because

4. A stray cat finds her way to your house on a cold winter night. She is very thin and looks ill.

I could

I would

because

5. You are playing in the park one day and see a man who is beating and kicking his dog. The dog is terrified and cowers away from the man.

I could

I would

because
