

PETA Presents

Happy Hatchday!

Here's something to cluck about: You've received a PETA Present! This tweet-worthy gift helps hatch a kinder world for chicks and all animals. Chirp chirp hooray!

I've made a gift to PETA in your honour. The group's vital work to oppose speciesism and promote animal rights is changing the world and ending the hideous suffering that animals endure for experimentation, food, clothing, and entertainment.

Thank you for everything you do to help animals.
